

PLAN YOUR CAREER DECISIONS

MY MAJOR 123

Finding your career direction begins with defining a critical element – Your Occupational Behavioral Style.

- Research suggests that specific behavioral styles are attracted to specific occupations
- MY MAJOR 123 capitalizes on the power of the DISC behavioral profiling assessment tool to identify occupations where your interests and behavioral style best aligns with defined occupations
- MY MAJOR 123 utilizes details from the largest national occupational database to assist in defining the major that will increase your likelihood of success in obtaining that job

PLAN YOUR CAREER DECISIONS

MY MAJOR123

The only program of its kind that enhances the likelihood of occupational success using science and data.

Programs

MY MAJOR 123 offers a variety of individual and group programs

We work diligently with college student athletes to transition from the playing field to career.

At the individual level we prepared students for success using detailed data for curriculum selection.

MY MAJOR123 The Program

Career satisfaction, happiness, and success are possible—if you know how to make it happen!

Using your personalized and detailed DISC report, MY MAJOR123 is the only tool you need to assist in making effective, informed decisions when it comes to selecting your college Major. Below are the three easy steps you need to complete for putting you on the path to occupational success.

THE STEPS

1. Complete and review the Career Management DISC Assessment.
2. Use the “links” from the DISC assessment to review the occupations identified for you on the world’s largest occupational database, via a website. Review, in detail, the valuable information provided on the website about each suggested occupational area.
3. Meet with your academic advisor to share your thoughts about a career and DESIGN your Major.

214.584.6262
www.mymajor123.com